“ Missing you nephew, I am always thinking of You, I see you with "big Smile" You always smiled that infectious smile just like your mom Leda. Gone Too Soon. Our Hearts are heavy and hole that is so big that the pain is just like you left Us Yesterday. When I look up and see the clouds I say to myself "Anthony's in one of Gods Many Mansion's " and smiling down at us all. Miss You Much. Auntie Barbara

“ I worked with Anthony for three years at Key Electronics. Besides, he was the son of my pastor, Rev. Kevin Clark. I've known Anthony for over four years and he always was respectful and fun-loving with me. I know it wasn't easy for him to work with his father's minister of music, but we did have some things in common such as a love for MSU football and basketball. It was so much fun being able to tell Pastor how his son agreed with me about MSU against his favorite wolverines!! I truly loved this kid and I already miss him with all my heart. Rest well, Anthony my friend, in the loving arms of our Lord, and please don't tell my mom any of the silly things we did when you see her.
