“ During the 1960s, 10 children (nine boys, one girl) were growing up in a house at 208 Green St., Westminster SC, all under the watchful eye of Mrs. Annis Hendrix (Nana). We were siblings and cousins and in that small house we all got along. I remember Anthony as the boy who was always reading. He and my brother Mike purchased the latest comic book release on a monthly basis. Anthony was just special in so many ways, and those years are remembered with love. Go with God my cousin. We will miss you, but we will cherish these precious memories.

“ You were my cousin by blood, But my friend by choice, I still hear the echo of your laughter and voice. Though you left us to soon, and my heart feels the pain. You will always be in my memories growing up together. I love you ❤️ Until we meet again cuz rest easy
