“ My condolences to the entire family. Anthony was an awesome person. He ALWAYS spoke to the staff and had a great smile. Its so sad when our loved ones leave us, but know that he is in a better place than we are and one day if we love the Lord will be there as well. Ms Debbie you dont know me but you worked with my grandmother Ms Lee. I was a nurse at Harper and ran into your husband daily at the elevators and thats how we found out its a small world. He was the bomb at putting those IV's in. All the pt's wanted him. Cling to your family and friends at this time and grieve as long as necessary. With love!

“ Debbie, you and your entire family have become a part of my family since Anthony, Jr. and my Tyrone were in pre-school together. My heart hurts with you. I remember when you first introduced your precious husband to me and I adopted him as my "second" husband. I love you guys so much and with everything in me I promise to be there for you through anything. You may not need me today or tomorrow, but I am here and will always be. Me, Norman, Tyrone, Lexi, Mady and Kenton - we all send our love. Our arms are outstretched and able to hold each one of you. Our shoulders are here for you to lay your heads, our ears are open to hear your words. We love you all, always.

Love you Debbie, Anthony Jr., Chris and Angie

*Allah hears those who praise him ---

“ MY DEEPEST SYMPATHY TO YOU DEBBIE, AND YOUR ENTIRE FAMILY. ANTHONY WAS THE BEST. HE COULD ALWAYS KEEP US LAUGHING WITH HIS CRAZINESS AND HIS ANTICS. NOT ONLY WAS HE A GREAT CO-WORKER, BUT A GREATER FRIEND. HE WAS MY BROTHER, I LOVED HIM, AND I WILL TRUELY MISS HIM. GOD BLESS YOU.
