“ To my precocious cousin Tony, my only memory of him is his big afro, his glasses, a big smile, and bright skin is a big sign of a child of God. Sleep on and take your rest until Christ awakes you. Brian Gordon, Franklin, VA

“ This memory of Chef Tony and his family comes from "Mrs. Y"--Gayl Woityra.

It covers many years. My husband Jerry and I first met Chef Tony when he was chef of various restarants that we favored in the Detroit area. He would often come out from the kitchen, and sit at our table to chat. And so we remember how very friendly he was and how he loved to laugh. Later when we retired to Tucson, Arizona, he and his beautiful wife Jeanetta, and daughter Ariel, at the first visit only five years old, came to visit. They visited us several times. What I most recall is taking the family to the top gourmet restaurant, Janos, in Tucson. Husband Jerry had taken classes with Janos, who came out to meet Chef Tony and his family. In a later visit, Jerry, now quite good with cooking, prepared a meal for the Middlebrooks. Chef Tony was so impressed he took photos of the plates of food.

Jerry passed to heaven eleven years ago, but I have kept in touch with the Miecelebrooks. They are a very special, loving family. I am saddened for Jeanetta and Ariel, at this loss of an old friend who would always call us at Christmas. We (I) love you all and send you prayers and condolences from our heart.
