

Mr. Anthony Parker

March 1, 1997 - April 5, 2024

Anthony Jerald Parker “AJ” was born March 1, 1997 to Heather Nilsson. Anthony was a beloved son, brother, uncle and friend. He valued his family and friends and protected who and what he loved at all times. His strength was like no other and worked hard at anything he put his mind to, he’d help anyone in need and you never had to ask him twice. He loved his motorcycle and riding like the wind.

AJ could make the world laugh and a moment with him left a lifetime of memories. At the age of twenty-five Anthony was baptized in the name of Jesus and filled with the Holy Ghost.

AJ loved the Lord and lived his last days serving God with all his heart, he inspired so many around him to turn their life over to God and would pull anyone down the aisle to know Jesus. On April 5, 2024 the Lord called him home while doing what he loved most.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his mother Heather Nilsson, step-father Jacob Nilsson; his sisters, Whitey Booterbaugh (Anthony LeFlouria brother-in-law), Laura Keil (step-sister) (Dan Keil; brother-in-law); his honorary siblings, JaQualon “Quay”, Keaira, and Megan “mello”; his nephews Kalani, Solomon, Austin (AJ), and Armon; his niece, Angel, his cousins Kee’Janae, Ke’Vae, Kayzha, Kalia, Kennedy, grandparents Mary and James Houston, and Sherley Turner; his aunts Kayla and Kimberly Turner; his uncles Keith and Kevin Turner; along with a host of church family and friends who will miss him dearly. He is preceded in death by his grandfather Deacon Floyd Turner and (step-sister) Kristen Nilsson.
