“ I remember visiting my Dad's in-laws home when I was a young girl and Antoine was always the upbeat and gentle soul in the room regarding me. At my dad's home going, I remember having a moment where I was glad to see him there and he hugged me and consoled me even through familial tensions going on. He was a kind soul and so much fun to be around. I am hurt to learn of his passing this morning, but I know God is in control. May you rest in sweet heavenly peace Antoine. You will be missed for a lifetime, but looking forward to seeing you in eternity. Love, Tigar's Daughter. 🌸
