April was a sweet and generous person, that always had a hug and a kiss for everyone. She loved her family and friends, and they loved her even more. April loved to travel, and play bingo, but bowling was the sport and thing she loved the most, and she bowled for more than 20 years. April was even granted special status as a PFENBA bowler, that recognized her as a bowler that participated in five of more leagues! (Postal- Federal Employees National Bowling Association.) April was also a member of the Motor City Bowlers Guild (2004) for many years and this circle of bowlers created a special family, that she treasured.

Most recently, April accepted the position as an assistant cook at Imperial Service Suites in Southfield, MI where she was adored by her co-workers. April loved her parents and April's father loved the Lord, and she became a member of First Baptist Institutional Church and later became a member of Christian Tabernacle Church, and if you needed a Bible, you could just ask April, she had enough for everyone. April leaves her beloved daughter, Zorana R.
