

Ms. April Yolanda Williams

April 21, 1969 - January 17, 2025

In Loving Memory Of

April Yolanda Williams was born on April 21, 1969, to Edith and Earnest Murry in Plaquemine, Louisiana, moving to Detroit, MI in her younger years.

April exemplified her love for working at Detroit Athletic Club for 16 years, watching cartoons and playing with her dog, Roqzie.

April was educated at Frank Cody High School and completed her continuing education program, attaining a graphic design certification. She had multiple hobbies including working, shopping, getting her hair and nails done, watching cartoons, cooking and baking for her family and friends, making gift baskets and all sorts of things.

April became a loving mother of four, three boys and one girl, Mark Daniels, JaMarques Daniels, Shonquella Hubbard and her bonus son, JaJuan Hubbard. She did everything and more for them and her kids cherished her dearly for that.

April gave up on a love life but proceeded to be with her children's father, Dushon Hubbard. Even though they hadn't been together in a long time, they were best friends and did almost everything together. When you saw April, you more than likely saw Shon.

On January 17, 2025, the Angels came and carried April with them. She is no longer suffering from her conditions and now is in peace. She was preceded in death by her aunts.

She leaves to cherish her sweet memories with: her children Mark, JaMarques, JaJuan and Shoni; parents, Edith and Earnest Murry; siblings, Telisha, Myron, Jim, Monique, Marcus, Nicole, Cedrick and Tracy; grandchild, Kyrie; nieces and nephews, Courtney, Myron Jr., Martel, DeAngelo, Cedrick Jr., Karrief and Sidni; and a host of loving cousins and friends.

April will truly be missed by all.
