

Mr. Archibald Muir Crooks, Jr.

January 24, 1935 - November 4, 2019

in Loving Memory Of;

Archibald Muir Crooks, Jr. was born on January 24th, 1935 in Trelawny, Jamaica to the late Archibald (Bali) Muir Crooks Sr. and Daphne Eccleston Crooks as the first born out of five children. His brothers Ludlow, Geoffrey, and sister Norma preceded him in death. His last living sibling is his beloved sister Sonja Young-Crooks.

At age 17 he ventured to Canada where he attended the University of Nova Scotia and graduated with a degree in Engineering. In true Jamaican entrepreneur fashion, he moved to New York and started his own taxi service while attending Columbia University where he later received his master's in engineering. Throughout his schooling he studied abroad at the University of Trinidad and met his first wife Lorna and had his first-born son, Malcolm Archibald Crooks. He went on to work for Shell, Kajima, Mazda, and Chrysler as an engineering consultant, forming his own engineering company, T.C.I Technologies and Consultants.

When he later met the love of his life on the Republic flight from Miami to Chicago, Sheila Crooks. After 3 years of love, travel, and flight they finally eloped and formed a marriage of almost 40 years. From that marriage, they conceived two more children, Jamill Jeffrey-Archibald Crooks and Alicia Marie Crooks.

Archie was known for his generosity, love, comedic nature, mentorship, and overall caring personality that made everyone around him feel warmed and forever loved.
