“ *Mother,
You were special and definitely one of a kind...now I believe you and my Mother share the same dwelling place with the Lord as He continues to keep you-but it's in the spirit of rejoicing.
Love, Bea*

“ My "grand"mother was my friend!! Although it hurts that she's no longer with us physically, I'm smiling thinking of everything we shared. Working in the garden, rolling lemons for her pies, shredding cheese for her macaroni, etc.. That was just in the kitchen. I loved riding in the backseat when my mother would drive her to work at Chrysler. Even from a young age, I knew that that was special. Three generations! Grandmother and I would watch Love Connection while snacking and talk about what we'd do if we ever hit the lotto! She always kept it real with me when we spoke, even when I was younger. I appreciated that. I could talk to her about anything! She was not the typical grandmother(with the exception of her cooking)! She taught me the difference between a capon and a chicken:) I learned a lot about life from her. I have enough memories to write a book, and for that I am grateful and truly blessed. Til we see her again.....Thank God

“ Mrs. Hawkins was the highlight of my day. She always had something cute and funny to say. The whole place loved her. She will truly be missed.
