“ I am so disappointed to hear this news. Arnett and I worked together when I first began this type of work and he kept in touch for over 15 years. All I can think about is smiles and laughs when I think of Arnett. Hard working genuine guy that the world definitely is missing every day. Thank you for our friendship, your hard work, and everything you taught me. Jason Cece

“ My Dear Big Brother, I am so saddened that you are not here with us any longer. We always think that we have tomorrow and then this happens. My heart is hurting because I did not get a chance to have that one last talk or laugh that we would share after not hearing from each other for a while. I will cherish the memories that I do have and the love that we had for each other. RIP My Big Brother

“ My Arnett,

From the day we met, despite our life situations, we knew the love we shared. We fussed, we fought, and we still loved one another.

Every old school song, every truck, every Mustang and Corvette, ALL our laughs... our last conversations....

I took for granted you would always be here... Arnie...

I can't breathe...

We weren't finished...

I love you, My Arnett – I hear you all around me -

*The kindest, hardest working, most trust worthy man I have ever known.
