“ Dad Austin was a very good friend to me, supportive, and kind. I always enjoyed our conversations usually accompanied by a cup of coffee or a glass of iced tea. Over the years I think we covered just about any topic you can think of and shared our sometimes opposing viewpoints and opinions. There was a lot of laughter and friendly teasing as well. I have many fond memories of birthday celebrations, Christmas dinners, camping trips, and family events. I am fortunate to have known him and am thankful for the loving and supportive grandfather he was to my children, Nate and Alexa. I will miss him. Sue

“ My dearest cousin has gone home to be with Lord. He was more than cousin to me, more like a big brother or father image because he was always there when I was growing up protecting us from the things in life that I encountered. I pray that God give all of my family strength and togetherness during this difficult time. "Bully" as we called him will truly be missed. Every time I go to the farmers market or any where that they have fresh grown vegetables, especially corn, greens and I can't leave out my amazing sweet potato pie that you loved so well. I will always think of you!
