

Mr. Artist C. Wright,, Sr.

August 16, 1944 - April 16, 2016

The Life Of Artist C. Wright, Sr.:

Artist C. Wright Sr. was born August 16, 1944 in Detroit, Michigan to the late R.C. And Rose Mary Wright.

Artist was educated in the Detroit Public Schools system.

Artist was employed with Edward C. Levy Corporation for 25 years and retired.

Artist has four children from previous marriages: Artist Wright Jr., (late) Clint Wright, (late) Blake Wright and Derrick Wright.

Later, Artist found love again and married Vanessa Wright on January 30, 2007, creating a blended family he loved dearly.

Artist enjoyed hunting with his father, sons, brothers, uncles and cousins at their summer home at Shay Lake.

Artist had a great passion for horses and was a fine horseman. Artist and a few of his friends were watching the Pasadena Tournament of Roses Parade and notice that no African American horse riders were participating.

Understanding the task ahead and having a love for horses, they decided to organize an African American Equestrian Group in the state of Michigan which founded the Michigan Black Horsemen Association.

Artist loved sharing history with his family and friends, giving them wisdom and knowledge to cherish a lifetime.

On April 15, 2016, God sent His angels to relieve Artist from pain and suffering and now he's soaring in heaven with his parents, brothers and sons.

I have the best memories of Artist encouraging my sister and I as youth in the 4-H group: He was always willing to let us ride his horses in parades, on camp-outs, and in rodeos. He was always ready to saddle, trailer, and whatever was necessary to give us opportunities. We learned so much from him, and not just horsemanship skills: He modeled generosity and empowerment to us, and it lives on! Grace and peace to the Wright family and community of loved ones.
