

Ms. Ashley Nicole Andrews

August 14, 1983 - December 18, 2014

Her Journey:

My Child, My 1st Born, My Baby

Ashley Nicole Andrews was given to me on Sunday, August 14, 1983 in Detroit, Michigan. She was my God given gift from the first moment and I felt honored to be her mother.

Ashley was always a loving spirit and never met a stranger.

She was educated by the Detroit Public Schools system and furthered her education by educating herself. If she found it interesting; she learned how to do it. Her and her Dad built engines to prove it.

Ashley lived her life no matter anyone's opinion because she knew that God was the only one who could judge her. She was lovable as well as irritating, but I loved my child, my baby unconditionally.

God used me to bless this world with the force that was Ashley Nicole Andrews when you met her you didn't easily forget her. She was humble yet confident, beautiful inside and out.

Before Ashley had children of her own she had Chauncey and Anastasia to practice on. Her seeds in the ground.

So when the good Lord blessed her with two little boys, she loved them beyond all. Ashley was a very good mother to her boys regardless of what she had going on or what anyone thought.

Caleb and Aiden are blessed exceedingly and abundantly simply because of who their mother was.

She was Ashley, a mother, daughter, sister, granddaughter, niece, cousin, friend and frenemy. All God created her to be.

On Thursday, December 18, 2014, Ashley transitioned from this earthly realm to her heavenly home.

“RIP Ashely. I was looking for her name out of curiosity and discovered she passed away. Ashley was one of the coolest people I ever met. We started as classmates at Cody High and eventually became neighbors. I pray for her family and lovers ones.

“May peace be with the Andrews family especially during this difficult time.

John 11:23-25

Jesus said to her: “Your brother will rise.” Martha said to him: “I know he will rise in the resurrection on the last day.” Jesus said to her: “I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life.”

“ My niece, the first. As a child she had the sweetest disposition, as a young woman I saw determination. As an adult, I was proud of the independence and persistence that you exuded. I witnessed your love of family, your stubbornness (you got honestly) and through all of it the still the wide eyed little girl who stole my heart.

“ My heart feels for you and your family at this time. I feel as though I lost one of my own nieces. I will miss hearing that soft sweet voice ("Hi, Mr Curtis"). Just seeing a father and daughter bonding (working on a car together). Ashley will be missed but not forgotten. I will always be here for you and the kids. Curtis
