

Ms. Austine Diane Jernigan

September 20, 1951 - August 8, 2016

Austine Diane Jernigan- "Tina"

Austine Diane Jernigan lovingly known as Tina, was born on September 20, 1951 in River Rouge, Michigan to the parents of Lois Elizabeth Jernigan and Willie Richard Cross. Tina was an only child. She was educated in the Detroit and Romulus school systems. She graduated from Schoolcraft College in Livonia, Michigan. She was on the dean's list for the high GPA achievements and went on to become an LPN.

Tina was a jack of all trades; she worked in the fast food industry, Plymouth State Institutional Home and Training School; she also worked in her aunt and uncle's store, Ford Motor Co., Great Lakes Steel and Pennwalt Chemicals. She worked as a nurse in nursing homes, group homes and Walter Reuther Psych Hospital where she retired as a devoted nurse.

Tina's favorite pastimes were shopping, talking, and visiting with family and friends. Her favorite saying was, "When the times get tough, the tough get going."

“ I just came across this today; for the brief time I was able to get to know Tina, as a young adult at the time, and myself as a freshman in high school in Texas, I got to see her sweet, caring spirit and nature. She initially was sent by family in Michigan to take care of our Great-Aunt, which in the end, was short-lived. All these years I had memories of the 2 weeks she stayed with us, before she returned back to Michigan. Sending extremely belated condolences and sharing family memories. Doris McMillan Cartwright (granddaughter of A.R. "Uncle Sweet" Jernigan)
