

Ay'Mira Uni'Que Thomas

April 29, 2012 - July 29, 2025

Ay'Mira Uni'Que Thomas was born on April 29, 2012 to Patrick Thomas and Quinetta McKinney in Detroit, Michigan.

Ay'Mira was known as “Momma” or “Bira.” She was the youngest baby girl of eight siblings. Ay'Mira was a straight A and B student attending Redford Public School district. Ay'Mira was getting ready for her last year in middle school and she couldn't wait to be a high schooler.

Ay'Mira was also a member of the Detroit Elite Tigerettes Majorette Dance Team. She was our dance-aholic. Ay'Mira was so bright, full of life, and was always being silly, laughing, making jokes, and playing around. She loved pranking us.

Ay'Mira wanted to be a pediatrician when she grew up. She loved babies and kids. She also had so many talents; she had an entrepreneur mindset and wanted to get into a lot of different things such as being a content creator and dabbling into beauty like hair, nails, and lashes. But most importantly, dance was her passion.

Ay'Mira was preceded in death by her great-grandmother Cleola Florine “Flo”; her grandmother Marion (Mayon), her oldest brother Jalen; and cousin Chyna.

Ay'Mira leaves to cherish: her mother Quinetta McKinney; father Patrick Thomas; grandparents Edward and Legina Thomas; grandma Danna Moore; siblings: sisters Ny'Geria, Jalae (Jalayah), Natavia, Christiana, Krystian, La'Nyia, A'Layshia and brothers Jay'Veon, Ameri, Cortae, Demarious; nieces Janita, Coreonna, Brionna, Arionna; nephew Ny'yair; aunties Ayanna, Sha'Daire, Legina, Shardae, LeaMarie, Hattie, Evita; uncles Quentez, Sr., Damond, Danny (Delita), Isaiah; special close cousins Quentez Jr. (Tez), Sa'Miya, (bestie/godsister) Ayahanna (Twin) Chase, Nylah (bold head self), Lori'L (favorite), Asia, Idress, Sopoia (Poi Poi), Melody (Pop that), Nyvia (Nyny), Ta'Quya (TQ), Jemeer (Opps), Ri'Cari (Cari), Seankesse, Sa'Nai, Mercedes (Mousey), Carty, Munch, Marty, Wuan, Shaun, Trinity, and Lil Lea; and a host of cousins, great-uncles and aunties.
