“ My hearts breaks when I see the death of a baby. While caring her, I'm sure you thought of the wonderful future you planned for Andrea Virginia Staples. During this short period of his life the smiles, coos and hugs that she has given you will always be treasured in your heart. Andrea should have had etenity ahead of her. This was not in our Grand Creator's plan. He wanted all mankind to live forever in paradise on earth. We will see Andrea. Our Grand Creator keeps his promises. As your hearts break, so does Our God's heart break. Yes, He does have feelings; because we are made in his image. The time is coming when: "...death will be no more, neither mourning, nor outcry nor pain will be anymore".(Revelation 21:3,4) Andrea and many others have the opportunity to be resurrected to life in paradise soon to be. God cannot lie (Titus 2:1). It's as good as done! Your baby can rest now, but until then hold on to this precious hope. Keep the bibles words close to your heart, as you tresure the memory of Andrea.##imported-begin##Geneva Humphrey McClendon##imported-end##

“ Although it is difficult to bear this grief right now, it was uplifting to hear Frank's story about Joshua seeing the Angels holding precious Andrea. All the love and strength your family possesses was felt by everyone present today and will carry you through.##imported-begin##Ann Maxwell##imported-end##

“ The sorrow of losing a loved one is profound beyond words. And though there's nothing anyone can say to ease the hurt, may God show you the way to new hope, peace, and happiness. Wishing You God's Peace.

“ Dear Folayan, I can imagine there are no words that can ease the pain you and your family are experiencing during this time; but I have a short story that may express the sorrow resonating in my heart.

On March 10, 1999 my mother was killed in a home invasion. The shock and horror my family experienced from that single violent act is undescrivable. The pain of the loss of my mother still rests in my heart, and mind. I think of her everyday and I know that without God's love I would have lost my mind when I lost my mother.

I pray that you would wrap yourself in the love and comfort of God. He and only He is able to guide you safely and sainly through your process of grieving.

With God's love in my heart

“ *Folayan,
Words cannot express how sorry I am for your loss. I continually keep you and your family in my prayers, asking for His continued comfort and strength during this incredible time of sadness. Please know that if there is anything I can do for you, do not hesitate to call. May God's love and blessings be a soft place of comfort to you and yours.##imported-begin##Bernadette Cleveland##imported-end##*
