“ My heart goes out to the family. I lost my son at 26 days old 3 years ago and I know the heartache personally! Please know that you will never get over this but God gives you the strength to cope with it everyday! Cry, kick and scream whatever you have to do. But know that God makes no mistakes and you are loved by him! May God bless you with love and understanding.##imported-begin##Beatrice Kennedy##imported-end##

“ Such innocence. Just beginning. I want to express my sincere sympathy for the loss of Angel. I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your baby Angel. Like any parent, you began to set goals for her future. The bible is the only place we can find true comfort during this difficult time.

When we hear a eulogy, it should give comfort. But it doesn't. Why? Even though we die, it is something unnatural. Because, in our DNA pattern, Jehovah put the desire to live and never die. . Ecclesiastes 3:11 “God has put eternity into man's mind” or “their heart.” What REALLY gives us hope? Not words to stir our emotions, but the truth found in the bible, which gives us hope that you will see Angel again. John 5:28-29 “all those in the memorial tombs WILL come out”..

Revelations 21:3-5. (My favorite scripture) Let me tell you why. “The tent of God (or God's protection) will be with mankind. He will wipe out every tear from your eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore, the former things have passed away.” Does that include your tears, your mourning, or your pain. Yes it does. Why can we be confident that this will come true? Verse 5 says, “Look! I am making all things new.” “these words are faithful and true.”

Ecclesiastes 7:2 “Better is it to go to the house of mourning than to go to the banquet house. We all should take this to heart.” After a funeral, many are rushing to get to the “banquet house” (or place where there will be food) This scripture is important, because when attending a funeral, it gives us an opportunity to reflect on our life course. We need to meditate on how we live our life now. Our everlasting life is in the hands of Jehovah God. We may die, but Jehovah by means of Jesus can restore us back to life.

1 Corinthians 15:26, talks about death being an enemy. We hate it. But it's there. Death “with be brought to nothing”, says the bible.

I hope that the words from the bible can give you comfort and know that others are thinking of you.

“ I was signing my sisters guestbook and saw your precious little one. I too lost my son shortly after he was born. I thought I would never get over that, I felt god was the meanest god. I still don't know why. I hated everything and everbody. I was tired of hearing it wasn't meant to be. Time went on and it became easier to deal with. I will tell you this, Stay Close to God in Prayer. He si the only one that can take some of the hurt away. So scream, holler, and cry for a while then reach out to god when you are ready.##imported-begin##Gwen##imported-end##

“ I was signing someone's else guest book and I saw your Angel's name posted on the website. First of all I wanna say God never makes a mistake. Your Angel so young and precious went back home. I can say that because my Angel Lauren Evans was 27 days old and she went back home with her father. It has been two years on July 21st. Another thing is I'm a Social Worker. I will help you learn how to live again if you want assistance or just someone to talk to, walk in the park with or whatever you need I'm there for you. Sometimes God allow certain things to happen in your life for a reason and we have to try to be productive citizens every day that he gives us grace and mercy to find out Why Us. Well my sista e mail me and I will assist you in any way possible.
