“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21:3, 4.##imported-begin##Susan##imported-end##

“ May the God of all comfort give you the strength you need to endure the loss of your baby April Mae. It's not selfish to say, "I want you to stay". The bible says, Jehovah put eternity in our mind. Death was not what was intended for us - just to live a few months or years and die. Paradise would have been our home. Because of the disobedience of our first parents, only imperfect offspring was in the loins of Adam. There were many Jesus resurrected, while he was alive. That was a fore gleam of the grand resurrection that will soon take place. I pray that you will be strengthen with courage to bear the pain that now fills your heart. Throw your burden upon Jehovah, he cares for you. Draw comfort in the resurrection hope. We will see little April Mae again. Revelations 21:3,-5 Isaiah 26:19, Proverbs 3:5-7.##imported-begin##Liz Malone##imported-end##

“ It is with deepest sympathy that I express these feelings. Nothing words can say could make up for the loss of your precious little baby; Death at any age is tragic and an enemy to mankind especially when one is so young. May you find comfort in the hope held out in the Scriptures, it come from a loving Father who will not fail to so all that he has promised. Tituss 1:2: Tell us "God cannot lie" So all he promises will come true, he promise to do away with death forever. Revelation 21:4. As you continue to cherish the beautiful memories of your daughter, rest assure that she is in God's memory.##imported-begin##Deborah Gipson##imported-end##
