“ What a huge tragedy! My heart goes out to all of you... just seeing Delric's cute little face while hearing such a heart wrenching story almost seemed unreal. Just know that when Delric's Spirit ascended into Heaven, there were many loved ones waiting there to greet him and welcome him to eternal paradise. Delric will never hurt again... he is safe and happy... and that's where he will be FOREVER. Please have no regrets, because what's done is done... Delric won't hold any grudges. He KNEW he was loved when he was on Earth, and he knows it even more now that he's in Heaven. His family left on Earth are crying and trying to make sense of it all, but in Heaven... there is peace... and he already understands. In some strange way, maybe this was where he was suppose to be. May God bless all of you and empower you with strength and courage to live each day.##imported-begin##kme##imported-end##

“ Rely on “the God of all comfort.” The Bible says: “Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself, and he himself will sustain you.” (Psalm 55:22) Prayer to God is not some sort of emotional crutch. It is real and vital communication with “the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation.”—2 Corinthians 1:3, 4.

God’s Word, the Bible, provides the greatest comfort of all. The Christian apostle Paul stated: “I have hope toward God . . . that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.” (Acts 24:15) Thinking about the Bible-based hope of a resurrection can be the greatest comfort while grieving the loss of a loved one.^ That is what Lauren, a woman whose teenage brother died in an accident, found to be true. “No matter how bad I felt,” she says, “I would pick up the Bible and read, even if it was just one verse. I picked verses that were particularly encouraging, and I read them over and over again. I took comfort, for example, from Jesus’ words to Martha after Lazarus’ death. He said to her: ‘Your brother will rise.’”—John 11:23.##imported-begin##Joslyn##imported-end##

“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21: 3, 4. “ Dear Family,

I was so sorry to read about the loss of baby Delric. Often times when death happens, unexpectantly, people feel it was God's plan or purpose. Please know that our Heavenly Father Jehovah hurts just as you do when a loved one dies. It is not his purpose for us to die. In fact, he has promised a time when we can see our loved ones again (John 5:28,29) and live in a world where there is no more violence, sickness or death (Psalms 37:10,11). Please lean on Jehovah God for comfort in this time of mourning (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##T. Cherry##imported-end##

“ To the family of the late Delric Wayvon Miller, IV, I say to you, you are truly in my heart and prayers. It's a struggle to even imagine going through what you are facing. I do know this for a fact though, you can lay your burdens on our heavenly Father, Jehovah (Psalms 83:18/Psalms 55:22), He will help you. When you feel bad or lonely, open your Bible and start reading, where you choose to read, let your heart be your guide. Diamond, it has been a pleasure to meet you and although I haven't known you but a day, please know that you can call on me anytime day or night if you need to talk to someone, I'll be here for you. Maybe sometime you may desire to accompany me at one of our Sunday Meetings at the Kingdom Hall I attend - you are always welcome, it don't have to be the one I attend, just go to one for strength and upbuilding association, you'll be surprised how much it will help you. Take your daughter and other family & friends if you want, you're all welcomed in Jehovah's house. I will keep you and your family in my prayers Diamond! You have my deepest sympathy.##imported-begin##Tyra S. Horton##imported-end##

“ My heart breaks as I read of the loss of Baby Delric Miller IV. 9 month is such a short period of time. It's not selfish, "I want you to stay". Our Grand Creator put eternity in our mind. We don't ever want to die. Death was never in HIS original purpose for humans. He didn't give up on us. He just had to take a different route to accomplish his purpose. Baby Delric Miller IV has the opportunity to live again, in paradise on earth. He can rest now, until his name is called in the resurrection. Even Jesus said, "You will be with me in paradise". Luke 23:43, Revelation 21:3-5. Lastly, my personal favorite scripture Isaiah 41:10&13 "Do not be afraid, for I am with you. Do not gaze about, for I am your God. I will fortify you. I will really help you. I will really keep fast hold of you with my righthand of righteousness.' For I am your God, I am grasping your right hand, the One saying to you, "Do not be afraid. I myself will help you.##imported-begin##Geneva Humphrey McClendon##imported-end##

“ My heart and deepest condolence goes out to the Miller family. Jesus says, "Marvel not at this; for the hour is coming in which all that are in the graves shall hear His voice and come forth-they that have done good to a resurrection of life."-John 5:28,29. Pure, innocent, beautiful & loving Baby Miller will be missed and is resting in God's memory. May you find comfort through the Word of God.##imported-begin##Mrs. C##imported-end##

“ I deeply regret the loss of little Delric Miller IV. Death can appear unexpectedly and bring grief and fear. While your hearts swell with pain and sorrow, your heavenly Father knows the affliction that gripes your very spirit. You may rightly wonder why, yet he knows and promises to “comfort all who mourn”. (Matthew 5:4) Because of the enormity of the loss, “Do not let your hearts be troubled”. (John 14:27)

What a blessing it will be when we can rightly ask: “Death, where is your victory? Death, where is your sting?” 1 Corinthians 15:55. Those we have held in our arms for a little while, we hold in our hearts forever. Unknown##imported-begin##Brenda Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the Family and Friends of Baby Delric, One of the greatest causes of grief is the loss of a loved one in death especially a beloved child. In times like these we need comfort that soothes our heart, our mind, our emotions, and both our physical and spiritual health. God's Word acknowledges that our heart can be "broken and crushed."(Psalm 51:17)Our Heavenly Father is certainly able to deal with this situation, for "he is healing the brokenhearted ones, and is blinding up their painful spots." (Psalm 147:3) Keep trusting and Praying for his help and the God of all comfort will be with you.##imported-begin##BobbieSmith##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: Those we have held in our arms for a little while, we hold in our hearts forever. (author unknown) I wish to extend my sincere condolences to you on the loss of your precious baby, Delric. Although I don't know you personally, it still pained my heart to hear of your baby's death and see his sweet picture on the news. I just wanted to say that our loving God truly understands your pain and cares about you (1Peter 5:7) He yearns to reunite children with their parents. He has already made provision to heal your broken hearts by restoring your loved one to you by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29) Anything or anyone causing distress will be done away with (Proverbs 2:21,22). Mankind will then be able to live out his days in peace the way God originally intended...'even life forever more.' (Psalm 133:3) May your hearts find comfort in the days ahead knowing all things will take place exactly as promised by God, for he does not lie (Titus 1:2). My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
