“ *I'm writing because I'm so very sorry for your loss, and I know loosing someone that young there's a lot of emotions bundled up inside.
I just wanted to leave you with something encouraging. Nobody but god can give you exactly the amount of comfort you need. If you have your bible please read revelation 21:4. There God promises he will do away with death even tears forever. I will keep the Murray family in my prayers.*###imported-begin##Kelynn Salley###imported-end##

“ To the family,
I am so sorry for your loss. Did you know the bible gives the hope of death not occurring on this earth anymore? At Revelation 21:4 it says “And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.” If you would like to know more about this hope, talk to any Jehovah’s Witness that you reach. I will keep you in my prayers###imported-begin##Brenda Jones###imported-end##

“ My hearts breaks when I read of the death of the death of your baby Isaiah. He should have had eternity ahead of him. We have the opportunity to see him again, in paradise on earth. That was, and still is, Jehovah God original purpose for those having faith in HIM. As your hearts break, the heart of our Grand Creator’s does also. Yes, He does have feelings; we are made in his image. The time is coming when:“...death will be no more, neither mourning, nor outcry nor pain will be anymore”. (Revelation 21:3.4) This opportunity for a resurrection is held out to Isaiah as well. (Titus 2:1). It's as good as done! Isaiah can rest now, from his struggle to survive, until then hold on to this precious hope. Keep the bibles words close to your heart, as you treasure the short memory of Isaiah. My favorite scripture is: Isaiah 41:10&13.###imported-begin##Mrs. Malone###imported-end##

“ Dear Murrah family. Please accept my sympathy over the death of baby Isaiah. I am writing to share with you the bible's wonderful hope of a future resurrection. A God of love does not use death to separate families. The scriptures plainly show at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that death is our enemy that will be destroyed by God. May this thought comfort you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Murray family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##
