“ I offer my deepest condolences to the Yancey family. When a child dies, it is particularly hard on the mother. Thus the Bible acknowledges the bitter grief that a mother can feel.(2Kings 4:27) Of course, it is difficult for the bereaved father as well."O that I might have died,myself,instead of you,"lamented King David when his son Absalom died(2Samuel 18:33) Have faith in "the God of comfort to help you to endure during this sad time.(2Corinthians 1:3-4)###imported-begin###sylvia colston ###imported-end###

“ Dear Family: May I offer my sincere condolences on the death of your precious baby, Montez Jameer. Nothing I say can remove the hurt you must be experiencing, but there is One who understands and feels your pain. After all, children are a reward from God (Psalm 127:3), a beautiful gift from Him. (James 1:17). Death is not something He ever intended for mankind to experience, but it is something He will eliminate very soon (1 Corinthians 15:26) When Jesus was on earth he showed his love for children and there were times when he even resurrected them and returned them to their parents (Mark 5:22-23, 35-43; Matthew 19:13-15) He promised at John 5:28,29 that the day is coming when 'all those in the memorial tombs (graves)(including Baby Montez) will hear his voice and come out. So, Baby Montez is just sleeping now awaiting the Master's call (John 11:11,25-26) May these Bible truths help to soothe the pain you feel knowing that God will soon 'wipe out every tear from your eyes and death will be no more...(Revelation 21:4)Rest assured, Jehovah God will do all that He has promised because he cares for you (1Peter 5:7) and because he cannot lie (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
