“ Dear family: Those we held in our arm for a little while, we hold in our heart forever: (author unknown) I wish epress my sincere condolence to for the loss of your precious baby. Although I don't know you personally. In time like this we need comfort that soothes our heart, our mind, and emotions, and our sprdititual health. God's word tell us that our heart can be broken an crushed (Psalms 34:18) Our Heavenly Father is certainly able to deal with this situation, for "He is healing the brokenheart ones, and is blinding up their painful spots." (Psalms 147:3) Keep trusting and prayin for help and the God of all comfort will be with you.##imported-begin##Deborah Gipson##imported-end##

“ It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love.
And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29)
Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....”
May you find comfort in these scriptures and faith in them for he “cannot lie.”

“ We are sorry for the loss, may you find comfort from this bible promise found at Rev 21:3,4 ... (Jehovah) God will be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.##imported-begin##Gillyard##imported-end##

“ May the hope at 1 Corinthians 1:3 bring the Rhodes family much comfort during this time. Jehovah God is the God of all comfort and he sees the difficulties and hard times we go through. He will help your family in this time of sorrow.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##
