

Ms. Baleria Ferlisha Smith - Curry

May 16, 1960 - September 28, 2020

In Loving Memory Of:

On May 16, 1960 in Birmingham, Alabama, Baleria Felicia Smith-Curry entered the lives of Willie Charles and Ada Mae Smith. She was the youngest of nine children blessed to their union. Baleria and her siblings were raised in a Christian home. She was involved in every activity the church had to offer rather it was singing in the choir or acting in a play. Baleria received her education in both the Birmingham and Detroit school system.

In 1976, Baleria met the love of her life Thomas Curry; five children were blessed to the young couple. After several years of dating, the couple was united in marriage. Although the marriage was resolved, a mutual respect and love remained intact.

Baleria was caring and hardworking although she was busy being a devoted wife, mother and caregiver she found time to serve her city. She joined the Detroit police reserves where she faithfully served for over fifteen years. Baleria had talents few people knew about. She could draw, write poems and find a way to make everyone laugh no matter the situation. She loved to entertain and make sure everyone had a good time. No one was a stranger to Bale; she had a special way of making sure everyone she met felt as if they were lifelong friends.

As Baleria became ill, she tried to keep her illness to herself. She didn't want anyone to worry instead she wanted to live every moment of life to the fullest. Baleria did everything to preserve happiness and the spirit of life. In the morning on Monday, September 28th, God saw Bale getting tired and weary and called her home.
