“ *Mother Bell had been a mother indeed to me when I lived there in Detroit. Taught me a lot in my beginning days of being a wife and mother. Taught me the value of money, how to cook and to be a thrifty shopper. She even allowed me to care for her hair. Loved me so as one of her own daughters. I will always remember her, the mother she was to me and an hands on grandmother to our children. Your the best mother a daughter could have had.
Love always

“ My Earliest Memory Of Aunt Bobbie, was when she and Uncle Joe came by my parents home (Mae & Grant Rodgers) and picked up all 6 of us kids and took us to there church they had on Tireman St, in Detroit. It Was Aunt Bobbie & Uncle Joe who introduce us to the Lord.

What a blessing that would be in my life. I don't remember a day see Aunt Bobbie without Uncle Joe, what a bless life she had and shared it with her entire family. We will truly miss you
