

Ms. Barbara Jean Dixon

September 23, 1937 - February 23, 2020

In Loving Memory Of;

On September 23, 1937, Barbara Jean Dixon entered the world to the late Robert Dixon and Mamie Hood in Augustus, GA. Barbara was always soft and humble as a little girl growing up in the 40's, being the oldest with her siblings. Barbara gave her life to Christ at an early age. She loved taking care of people, a true nurturer.

When the family moved to Detroit, MI they stayed in various locations on the lower east side near DMC, then on to the Jeffrey Projects, one of several first families that was broadcasted in the local news. There, she met her lifelong best friend, Annette. Barbara traveled to Cleveland, OH with her sister, Bonnie and cousin, Emma. Barbara joined the west side mothers and various functions.

Barbara was educated through the DPS system. Barbara loved staying busy. She worked for Michigan Inn Hotel for over 30 years where she retired.

Barbara Jean was a compassionate soul. She loved life. She lived everyday with a smile on her face. She took care of many family and friends. Her house was your house. Whether you needed to drop your kids off or your plants for her to take care of. She was ready. Barbara Jean loved celebrations. She loved to dance and crack jokes. She was hilarious.
