“ It has been a year and nine days since you left and by the grace of God I have been dealing with this! Now Brenda has gone from us too, I take comfort in knowing she is with you and you both are with the Lord in his arms! Give my auntie a kiss for me and know that you both are so very missed daily! Grandma you would be 89 years old today. Look over our family, we need prayer and understanding you were the glue that held us together and we need you! I Love You! I Miss You!!!!!!

“ Hey My hummingbird 💖 I cleaned up today and played all of are jams we use to rock to! I laughed at the memories that we shared thinking back on some of our conversations 😊 I feel your presence around me so much more now that I speak to you out loud it helps me it's like your with me by my side Not just in my heart! I Love you Grandma 😘 I miss you so very much, you always loved me for me flaws and all. I thank God for be blessed to be apart of your life. Rest up My Baby! Sweet Lady! My One and Only Hummingbird 💖

“ My Beautiful Hummingbird it's said that it will get easier as time goes by, but that's not true! It's been 5 months and it's harder each day to face living without you. I miss you so much 🥺 Why did you leave me?
