Celebrating Of The Life Of Barbara Ann Hamilton:

Barbara Ann Hamilton was born on December 8, 1959 in Detroit Michigan, to Ethel Lee McCroy and Herman Lewis. Both preceded her in death. As she stated all her life, she was raised by and with total love by her dad Decell McCroy.

Barbara well known by her family and friends “Be Bop. ” She attended Cooley High School, then went on to cosmetology school. That is where a star was born she had a natural talent, an artist of beautiful style creations. She then became a business woman by opening Barbara’s House of Beauty. As time went on, she found time to return to school in 2012 where she received certification to be a nurse assistant. During this stage of her life she took her certification and started working at Westland Nursing Rehabilitation Center where she truly loved working and helping her residents.

She was joined in holy matrimony to the late James Mclemore who also preceded her in death, with whom she enjoyed a decade of joyful bliss.

Barbara accepted Christ at a young age. Her strong belief in God made her who she was. Strengthening her faith even more, she joined Detroit World Outreach where she was a member of the choir and a part of the prayer engine. She was a true woman of God.

Barbara was also all about family. She showed support to everyone in her family and her friends. Always at her daughters' affairs and there for her grandchildren. She loved spending time with her family doing the simple things like playing cards or board games and going bowling. Support and dedication were her two best qualities. She was always someone you could count on. Barbara became absent from the body and present with the Lord on Tuesday May 5, 2015.
