“ Barbara Jean aka my Aunt Barbara #2: I will certainly miss the fun, the laughter and the joy you brought to anyone who had the pleasure of sharing your company. But most of all, I'm saddened to know that Aunt Barbara #1, will definitely have a Broken Heart, as you will no longer be by her side. I will depend on you to definitely be by her side as her Guardian Angel, because there is no number (#1) without the number (#2). Love you so much ❤️❤️

“ Barbara Jones b.k.a. Ma we played games on Facebook, I loved her cooking, I made sure I got what she needed when I came to visit. She would always make me feel better when I was sad or depressed, when she talked to you she was 100 with you, never fake. She loved her grandkids even if you had kids before you met her she loved them as her own. She loved her kids other half even if they didn't get married. She was a virtue woman, a well loved woman, a god fearing woman that everyone loved. We love you Barbara Jean and always will, you will forever be in our hearts. Rest In Peace, our beautiful angel.
