“ My Heart is Broken

It's so hard to believe that you're not here with me. A lifelong time of conversations, hugs, kisses, and prayers we shared together is over. You were a great, great Mom. Always doing the best you could with what you had. Most importantly the love and care you gave to all your children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. I thank God for the time we spent together. Blessed with a long and loving life.

Dear Father, She was a pillar, a gift of love, a treasure to my soul. Always caring, ever kind and giving, even as she grew old. To me she was a lovely mom, to you a beloved child. I could only know her a little, you knew her spirit deep inside. Whilst waves of grief break over me, crushing like a storm, You've greeted her with a warm embrace, and gently called her home. It's silent and so empty here, since she passed away, And yet she will hear celebration, called forever into grace. My memories are treasures now, I'll value, keep and sow, I know she's taken all her riches, left the chaff and worn the gold! As time passes, I'll forget the hurt and pain she bore, For now, she's free, restored and peaceful, in your arms forevermore. I'll let each bulb, each bud, each bloom, sing to me of your love. For you reign in eternity, and I'll wait for your kingdom to come. Thank you for my special mom, I trust her to your care, We rest in your arms secure and safe, we are both children there. I pray that she will enjoy the fullness of your presence through all eternity. Through Jesus Christ, our Lord, Amen.

Your Baby Girl..
