

Mrs. Barbara Jean Walker

September 18, 1947 - September 23, 2017

Celebrating The Life Of Barbara Jean Walker "Bobbie Jean":

Barbara Jean Walker was born to Alberta Stevenson and Jethro Jenkins on September 18, 1947 in Crystal Springs, Mississippi. She was the oldest of seven children; five girls and two boys.

Barbara graduated from Central High in Liberty, Mississippi. She left Mississippi in 1969 and moved to Long Island, New York with her aunt, to make a better life for herself. Barbara moved to Detroit and married Walter Mitchell in 1970. To their union two children were born, Andre and Brenda. In 1979 Barbara began work at Ford Motor Company. She worked there for 17 years as a welder.

Barbara later went on to meet and marry Lander Walker Jr. in 1986. To their union one child was born Jemita.

Barbara was a loving wife, mother, sister, grandmother and friend. She enjoyed listening to music, cooking, watching Westerns and reading books. Barbara was an avid shopper. She loved make-up and perfume. Barbara also loved spending time with her friends and family. She was a very kind-hearted and selfless person. In her life, she loved and accepted everyone. Barbara was called home on September 23, 2017 at Beaumont-Oakwood Hospital.

“ I remember when I had just recieved a Christmas present from her. It was a art set. I loved that set, grandma and I always shared the same love for art. When she died, I quit art. I hated art, I do still hate art, because it reminds me of her.
