

Mrs. Beatrice Dycus

June 14, 1936 - January 4, 2019

Words of Reflection

Beatrice Evelyn Chester was born June 14, 1936 in Muscogee County, Columbus, Georgia, to the union of Andrew Chester, Sr. and Verna Goodwin-Chester. Her family affectionately called her “BEA.” In 1942, the family relocated to Detroit, Michigan. Bea was educated in the Detroit public school system and graduated from Pershing High School in Detroit, MI.

Bea accepted Christ at a young age. She attended the Greater St. Peter’s A.M.E. Zion Church in Detroit, MI. She served on the Steward Board and was active with the Jr. Choir and the O.U.R. Club.

Bea loved hanging out with her sister and cousins. She enjoyed shopping and traveling with them. She was employed by several employers including the Detroit Board of Education and Collins and Ackman Manufacturing.

Bea was united in marriage to Morris Carroll Dycus, Sr. They were blessed with five (5) children: Phillip Dycus, Morris Carrol Dycus, Jr., Dominick Dycus, LaRue Dycus and Steven Mark Dycus. The family relocated to Indianapolis, Indiana, but after a few years moved back to Detroit.

On Friday, January 4, 2019, God called Bea to her heavenly home.
