“Mr. Benjamin Thomas Colson lived in the same apartment complex as I and was a dear friend to many. Every memory shared whether a construction or maintenance project Ben was embedded into it. I’m in profound debt to Ben inducing merit behind words shared today. Father GOD, I come before you today head bowed, and body bent. Joy is the secret gift of compassion; for anyone who knew Ben; it was extremely evident that joy and compassion were the hallmarks of his life’s vocation. His apostolic service and community life reflected his deep love of God and his desire to make Jesus known to all. People will forget what you said, people will forget what you did; but people will never forget how you made them feel. A Hebrew proverb sum’s up Mr. Benjamin Thomas Colson persona; “say not in grief he is no more; but live in thankfulness that he was.”
