

Mr. Benjamin Colice Hogan

June 11, 1931 - July 18, 2016

A Service Of Memory, Celebrating The Life Of Benjamin Colice Hogan: Benjamin C. Hogan was born to the late Ferrill and Lilly Hogan on June 11, 1931 in Cassco, Arkansas. He graduated from Immanuel High School in 1951. He was drafted to the United States Army to serve his county immediately after graduation and was honorably discharged in 1953.

On July 29, 1953, he gave his hand to his high school sweetheart, the late Shirley Hogan for 53 years. This union was blessed with four children, Michael, Gerald, Patricia and Steven.

Ben was employed at General Motors/American Axle for 55 years and only missed four days.

Ben enjoyed spending time with his family, laughing and joking and talking about old times with his distinctive voice.

Ben joined the Powerhouse Gym in 2008 after retirement where he enjoyed working out and flexing his muscles.

Because the Lord knows best, he called Ben home on Monday, July 18, 2016.

Ben Hogan was one of the greatest people I had the pleasure of knowing, tough, wise, kind, definitely a rare breed. You will be missed Ben.
