“ Ben I met you at Consumers Energy and instantly we became friends. Then my husband met you and you guys loved to talk about cigars and football. Then our children attended U of M during the same time and you guys help us learn the campus. Ben you will truly be missed my friend!

My condolences to the Lewis Family, Deondra

“ My dad and I have been sitting next to Benji and his brother Bob for the last four years as being season ticket holders for the Lions. We loved getting to know Benji and considered him a family friend. This breaks my heart to know that I won't have him sitting next to me at Lions games talking smack and hugging me every touchdown. RIP Benji, hopefully we get you a super bowl this year!

“ I had the pleasure of collaborating with Ben on numerous gas projects at work. Together, we planned for the future of the gas system in the most efficient way across multiple programs. He was a kind-hearted and friendly person that will truly be missed at work. I will miss talking about them the lions with him.

Sending my prayers and condolences to his family and friends during this time.

“My heart aches for you, Mrs. Maria Mosley-Lewis and your family. Thank you for raising such an intelligent, remarkable, and deeply kind son. From the very first day I met him—when he was holding his 1st born infant son—it has been a phenomenal journey and a blessing to know him. I keep thinking about our last conversation, how he laughed so hard at the little rap I made up about him. I had no idea that the very next day, God would call him home. I will always hold onto that moment of joy.

I am truly grateful for the time, fellowship, and memories I shared with Benjamin—a man with a golden heart, overflowing love for his children, his family, even the love of my dog at that time, and especially for you, Mrs. Maria.

May God surround you with comfort, strength, and peace during this difficult time. Please know that you are in my prayers, and Benjamin’s light will continue to shine through all who loved him.

With love, from one mother to another, Ms. Sonya Campbell.

“The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit.” — Psalm 34:18

“ Dear Lewis Family. Ben was a coworker of mine, but more of a friend. There are no words to express the gravity of losing such a wonderful young man and father way to early. I pray that God rests his warm blanket of comfort around you knowing he is with HIM. It is not goodbye, but till I see you again. He touched so many lives in a positive way, and I am grateful to get to know Ben on a personal level and always loved that million dollar smile. My deepest condolences and heart felt sympathy for his family. I take comfort in knowing he is with Jesus. ~BUD~
