“ I will miss you Bernitta dearly, but remember you Bernitta always with your beautiful smile being full of joy and love. Bernitta and I talked about life, work, relationships about whatever it was that was on our minds at the moment sharing with each other life's wisdom and understanding. We liked each other as co-workers on the job and always enjoyed talking to each other, but not being able to stop by and see her in her office now will leave me feeling a little empty. But for all of us who believe In God be happy that she is in a different place and time where life is now full of love, joy being with God. Robin your mother was an outstanding woman and the greatest mother ever to you. She will always be here with you through all of her life's lessons that she taught you to be the beautiful lady and woman you now are today just as she always was. Robin hold onto your belief and faith in God and through time he will help ease the pain of your loss away. Call me when ever you want, or need to I'm here for you. Peace & Love

“ Nitta,

No words can describe the pain that I'm feeling right now. So instead of searching for the words, I decided it best to speak from my heart. Bernitta, your kiss was a sweet reminder of love in a world with little light. Your smile provided a comfort that not even time can erase. And although today is hard, what I know for sure is that your memory will one day ease our sorrow. When I think of you I smile because I know that you are still with me, you are with us all. For you are very much alive in our memory and in our hearts. And in time, the tears will turn into sweet reminders of everything we love about you. Despite my heartache, and even on this day, countless thoughts of you make me smile, while the fleeting moments we shared surrounds me with your love. From the first time we began dating, I couldn't stop complimenting her. All the times we went out, I thought Man she's looking good! Nitta you were not only beautiful on the outside, your beauty reached far beyond what the eyes could see. Nitta had the biggest heart. She would do anything in her power to help people from providing food, to clothes, and even on occasions donating money. My Nitta could do anything she set her mind to. And boy oh boy could she shop. Clothes or food, didn't matter, she loved shopping for it all. Her holiday parties with friends and family were more than a celebration; every event was a feast and you could taste the love in every bite. Her family and loved ones meant everything to her. But now God has someone by his side who can be everything with Him. She fearlessly protected what was hers and her tenacity became a source of strength for anyone who knew her. Baby, you have been strong for us all and now it is time we do the same for you, as we remember the footprint of my remarkable Bernitta and celebrate her life. And as we share our beloved memories, we'll find that she is much closer than we ever imagined. For I know that everytime we look up, you will be that one star that guides us in the darkness, that one star that shines down love upon us. Bernitta, each time I look to the sky, I will remember you.

I love you and I miss you honey! Now it's your time to sit back, relax, and have a beer. Always looking up,

Your Rey

“ Dear Rogers family, I am so sorry for your loss. I would just like to leave you with a brief encouraging message from the bible found at 1 corinthians 15 : 26 where it says, " And the last enemy death is to be brought to nothing. " May God's word bring you comfort in this difficult time.
