“ I regret I am not able to be with you during this time. My heart is heavy with sadness at such a great loss. She will always hold a special place in my life. She was my rite of passage from a little girl leaving South Carolina to the new journey before me in Detroit. Please find comfort in these words from me and my family that she leaves a legacy to be cherished. May God keep you at this moment and for days to come.

“ I am very sorry to hear about your loss of Bessie. During this time, please take comfort in the words at Isaiah 25:8 which tells us that God will wipe our tears and swallow up death. What a wonderful promise to look forward to. May the love and support you receive from family and friends sustain you during this difficult time.

“ Nothing can express the absolute grief I feel. The sheer thought of losing you was unbearable and to find myself in this situation is hardening my soul. The woman I truly admired for her strength, perseverance and dedication to her family and friends is gone. I know that the heavens opened up to receive you and you are no longer in pain, that is the only thing that keeps me going every day. I vow to continue to be strong, loving and compassionate just as you taught me as well as passed those traits to my daughter Jada, (Ol' Juke).

I love You Always,

Your Grand-Daughter,

Callie
