“ *A dear friend, an inherited big sister, and especially my Road - as we so often referred to one another - has gone to live with our Heavenly Father. No more thoughts of you suffering , only memories of all the great times we shared. Even on her sick bed, Bettie showed me her strength and her belief in God. She helped me to be strong for her during her toughest battle. I will miss all those cakes, shopping trips, eating excursions, and rides to different parts of Michigan when I would visit from Atlanta. My Road has left a void in my heart that can only be filled with the knowledge that she dwells among God's heavenly Angels. I miss you Road,

“ I met Ms. Bettie through my friend Saneya. Ms. Bettie and Saneya lived in the same apartment complex. Saneya used to rave about much of a good cook Ms. Bettie was especially when she cooked chicken wings. One day I had the pleasure of being invited to dinner. What was on the menu? Chicken Wings! And I will tell you this, those were the best chicken wings!! I thought my mom's chicken was the best but Ms. Bettie got her hands down. I am thankful that I got to meet Ms. Bettie. She was always inviting and made you feel so comfortable in her home. I did not get to spend that much time with her but I feel blessed and fortunate for the time I did spend. We will miss you Ms. Bettie!!

“ Bettie was a wonderful friend and person. She adopted my son (Ryan) as if he were her own grandchild. She would fix him chicken wings, chocolate cupcakes and let him watch movies all day at her place. She was so loving, caring and giving. We would laugh, talk, joke and eat pizza or go out to lunch. We are going to miss our friend's presence. She truly was a blessing and had a beautiful a smile. Thank you for sharing Bettie with us.

“ Our thoughts and prayers go out to you and the family..Bettye was taken away from us way to soon, She such a Amazing women! Im so glad that I got to spend time with her at the Hospital .. We talked about how much fun we had together working at Ford... Love her smile, and her laughter..Your Mom will hold your hand only for a Little while but she will hold your heart for a Lifetime... Thanks for letting me be your friend forever until we meet again! Love you! Deb Starkey
