

Mrs. Betty Lou Giles

February 7, 1945 - December 8, 2013

The Life of Betty Lou Giles:

Betty was born in Greenville, Georgia to the union of Clyde and Willie Mae Brown on February 7, 1945. She was the youngest daughter of ten children. She came to Detroit, Michigan as a young girl and graduated from Central High School in 1963. After high school, she worked in accounts receivable for an automobile dealership and was a medical assistant in a doctor's office.

In 1967 she met Herbert Giles. They were married on April 4, 1970. To this union was born a daughter, Dawn Catrice and son, Karim Jahi.

Throughout her life, she enjoyed cooking, shopping, singing, and spending time with family. She accepted Christ at an early age and was a longtime member of Trinity Faith United Methodist Church. Her passion was singing, and she sang in several choirs. She wrote songs and has two published gospel songs. She was a God-fearing woman whose doors were always open to others. If you knew Betty, you knew a strong spirit, a sweet smile, and a kind word.

Betty departed this life peacefully, at home, on December 8, 2013.
