“ Our prayers are with the Glover Family. We are so grateful to Mrs. Betty for looking out for our children and grand children as they crossed the busy intersection at Lincoln and Southwood Dr in Southfield. Mrs. Betty was the crossing guard for over 20 years for the Schoenhals and Thompson K-8 Academy students. Our hearts are heavy. We loved her and she will be missed.

“ Our sympathy to you. Sam and our kids grew up together and as a result, saw a great deal of Betty. She was always involved in PTA activities and met every task with energy and smiles. Lots of fun, too! She was an asset to the neighborhood and a joy to know. May she rest in peace. - Judi and Ernie Sullivan

“ Ms. Glover was a champion for Northland Gardens. She was a dear friend to my Grandparents who preceded her in death. She was also one of my biggest supporters in my political aspirations. Her impact on my life will be felt for many decades to come. To her family, keep the faith and know that God has received a wonderful person in Ms. Glover.
