“ Betty Boo I still cannot believe that you are gone. We have been more like sister's for nearly 30 years. I'll always remember your kind, sweet, spirit. I'll always remember the good times that we shared. Your family at Shep's Barbershop will miss you so very much. You were our official greeter when customers came in the door, helping the old folks, the sick, and the handicapped. It doesn't seem fair the way you had to leave but I'm beginning to finally learn that fair isn't how life works. I still cannot believe that you are gone. I can still see your face, still hear you laugh. But God came knocking at your door, He was ready to show you the way out of your pain. His purpose for you in his kingdom was ready to be fulfilled. Shep's will never be the same. But we Thank God for the many years that he allowed us to share. Part of us has gone with you. You are now resting in the Masters hands. Love you Boo...
