“ Sister, I miss you more and more each day that I can't be with you. You fell ill on March 6, 2023, and it is now July 6th. I'll never forget your last words to me, "I love you so much!" And I told you, "I love you too!" You were my big sister, my only sister. We shared 72 years of beautiful memories, and I'm really lonely without you. But I thank the Lord every day for your love. I know you're in heaven doing what you do best -- bringing joy! Please come visit me when you have time. 🙏❤️

“ Aunt Beverly was always so full of life and ready to dance the night away. She ways greeted me with a heart warming smile, she will be greatly missed. RIP and may your memory live on through those who loved you dearly. God bless the family and be a fence around them. Love Roderick/Sebastian

“ I love you Auntie so much.... I still can not believe I'm never going to laugh with you again, see you dance, or hug and kiss you again. Having you for an Auntie is one of the best gifts God gave me, the way you loved me and showered me with gifts, love and good times is something I will always cherish. I am so incredible lucky to have had you. I am just sick you have left us...
