“ Booker was like a magnificent tree. He stood strong and proud and soaked up all of god's glorious nourishments. Sun, rain and soil nurtured him; they fomented his growth and he flourished. When strong winds blew, he stood silently and failed to yield to the strongest of gales. We climbed his limbs, tied swings to his branches, and took shelter in his shade....

A hole now exists in the canopy: the sun burns hot, the rains feel cold. Let all of us collect a "Booker seed", tuck it securely in the richest of soils, and restore what he brought to all of us.

“ Deacon Rodgers was a humble person & God-fearing man. He will be missed here on earth! However, the Lord had better plans for him so He called him home. Heaven is rejoicing over this bold soldier who has made it into God's great Kingdom. Psalm 116:15 says:

May God continue to bless all of Deacon Rodgers's family & friends through this time with continued strength!

*Sincerely,
Sis. Christina Davis*
