“ Little Brother,

God brought you into our lives for only a moment; filling it with love and laughter.

We lost touch throughout the years missing out on a lot. But I will always remember the most recent event that sadden us all but brought us back together. I was so happy to see you this past summer, wishing now that I could have more days like that. I will miss you but know we will again meet. LOVE YOU ALWAYS!

Love,

Karyn Morton (Hillman) - adopted sis
