

Mrs. Brenda Joyce Ingram

December 11, 1942 - January 4, 2015

Brenda Joyce Ingram was the first of five children born to Levester and Ernestine Wilson, both preceded her in death.

Brenda accepted Jesus Christ and was baptized at an early age. As a child, Brenda excelled at playing the piano. She loved classical music, especially Tchaikovsky. She also enjoyed ice-skating and cake baking/decorating. Her siblings have fond childhood memories of the cakes that she would bake for them on their birthdays. Her love for baking cakes continued throughout her life for the birthdays of family members and friends.

Brenda married Gary Allen Ingram, who preceded her in death and from this union two children were born, Kimberly Beth and Gary Allen Jr.

Throughout her career, Brenda was employed as an administrative assistant at various non-profit and family service agencies. She enjoyed working with and providing services to children so much, that she would occasionally bring them home to share in holiday celebrations.

Brenda liked to travel. She frequented Northern Michigan, California and England.

In England, she enjoyed drinking tea and visiting her good friend Linda and her goddaughter Amber. In California, she loved to spend time in the sun and by the water with her sisters. In Northern Michigan, she liked to visit Saint Ignace and Mackinac Island.

During Brenda's lengthy illness, she flew away into the loving arms of our heavenly Father on January 4, 2015.
