“Missing you more and more everyday. I wish I could just talk to you and tell you all the crazy things that are happening right now. So many memories of us goes through my mind everyday. I miss the times we were on the phone talking for hours, I miss the times I spent at your house, I miss the times you would stay in the store for hours shopping, and many more memories I withhold. Currently, life is tough without your presence, but I know you would want me to keep pushing throughout all the tough times. I love you granny and I miss you, love Nana

“Though you were not bound to us by blood, you were family in every way that mattered. You filled our lives with love, laughter, and warmth, leaving an imprint on our hearts that will never fade. Your kindness and unwavering presence brought us comfort and joy, and the memories we shared will forever be treasures we hold close. You taught us what it truly means to love and be loved, and for that, we are eternally grateful. In your honor, we promise to keep your spirit alive in our actions and in the way we care for one another, just as you did for us.”
