“ To the family of Brenda Dean Warren,

I wish to extend my condolence to each of you for the loss of your dear loved one.

May the Father of mercies and the God of all comfort, strengthen; protect; and continue to bless each of you; during and beyond this difficult time.

"Now unto Him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us" (Ephesians 3:20).

Priscilla G.

P.S. Much love to you Moze and Mama Nat!!

“ To Mama Nat (XOs) and Moszetta (Muah!), her children and grandchildren, and to all of her family and loved ones: You have my deepest sympathy and sincere, heart-felt condolences in Brenda's passing. I pray that you don't mourn her passing as those who are without hope... But that you abide in The Presence of God, abound in The Peace of Holy Spirit, and rest in The Blessed Assurance that she is now sleeping in The Arms of Jesus (1 Thess. 4:13-18) as The Good and Faithful Servant of Our GREAT and FEARFUL GOD, having completed the Assignment that she was given and having caused to succeed that which she was sent to do (Isa. 55:11 MSG, CJB).

“Upon awakening the morning after Brenda’s passing, I thought of Brenda once having shared with me that she NEVER KNEW her father. Well, now she gets to KNOW a-n-d to BE WITH...Her FATHER!!! GLORY, HALLELUJAH... Moreover, if it is true, as it had been said, that Billy Graham's passing would usher in the Last and Greatest Revival, an outpouring of Evangelism and Harvest, then SURELY it likewise stands to reason that with “Brenda’s return to Heaven”, so shall the seeds sowed and scattered throughout AFC’s, “The DETROIT Revival” be ever so watered and...NOW COME FORTH...into FRUITION!” ~Jacquelynn
