“ Coach Figg! My earliest remembrance of him is as a football player playing with the Northwest Detroit Cougars. And seeing this Coach who was pretty hard nose and loud driving his beat up station wagon across the field. But I came to get to know him later on because he would become my coach. In baseball and football. He didn't require any less of you from either sport. He pushed you and required you to work hard and run. And boy o boy did we run. We ran all the time. We were able to outlast and overcome our opponents because we ran so much. He had a commitment that was unmatched. I haven't seen a coach to coach for as long as he did, the way he did. As a teenager, then high schooler. And then as a parent. Many of days I can remember him having his two daughters Darniece and Ce Ce with him during practice. And there are so many of his former players who have impersonations of him it's hilarious. He will be missed❤️! He was a lesson of consistency, and commitment.
