

Mr. Brian Christopher Pye

January 2, 1984 - June 1, 2021

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

“ Mr. Brian Christopher Pye

January 21, 2023 at 09:34 PM

“ *Our thoughts and prayers are with the family.
May the God of all comfort help to ease the pain of your grief. With caring thoughts.*

Evans family - June 15, 2021 at 05:03 AM

MF

“ I was blessed with the opportunity to meet Brian at a house warming some years ago. I had heard innumerable stories about Brian from his Mother (who I work with) up to that point, so it was nice to finally meet the man himself. Brian was immediately likeable, funny, well spoken, and I could see that he was truly a joy to his Mother and his family. The time went by that day too quickly, and I think I could have spent hours just getting to know Brian more, an opportunity that I won't have now.

When you see someone taken at a young age as Brian has been, it always makes you question why. In my mind I am always brought to think of the standout figures of the Old Testament who were taken "before their time." I think the Lord had let Brian fulfill his purpose among us here, but the Lord so loved Brian that He wanted him in His presence. We don't think of the Lord as impatient, but in my heart I can see Him waiting for Brian at the Gates of Heaven and greeting him with a strong hug.

Those who give their lives to Christ will be reunited with Brian one day, and I personally look forward to continuing my conversation with him. Until then, cry tears for our loss here on earth, hug one another, show love to one another, remember Brian through your experiences with him, remember his smile, the sound of his laughter, and keep his memory alive here as he lives in eternity with our Savior. Peace to the Family and to you all.

Michael Frisbee - June 11, 2021 at 07:16 AM

AH

“ Nephew, you will always be missed because you will always be remembered! Love You!

From Your Uncle Al and Family in Texas

Alexander Harris - June 10, 2021 at 07:38 PM