

Mr Bruce Allen Love Sr

January 31, 1932 - January 15, 2017

Celebrating The Life Of Bruce Allen Love Sr.:

Bruce Allen Love, Sr. was born on January 31, 1932 in Monessen, Pennsylvania to John and Maggie Love.

Bruce accepted Christ at an early age. He attended the Monessen Public School system. After high school, Bruce joined the Air Force and served during the Korean War. He finished his tour of duty with honors in 1953.

Bruce was very skilled in mathematics, accounting and bookkeeping. He returned home to Pennsylvania to help his grandfather with the family trucking business.

However, there was a yearning in Bruce's heart that urged him to leave the family business and his birthplace. He had a passion for singing. Bruce's powerful and captivating singing voice lured him away. Bruce relocated to Detroit, Michigan to be amidst the Motown sound.

An avid learner, Bruce went on to complete an Associate of Business degree from Highland Park Community College and several certificate programs from the Dale Carnegie Institute.

Bruce was a tax preparation entrepreneur for more than 20 years; and a data key coder with the United States Post Office until his retirement in March 1994.

Bruce was joined in holy matrimony with Juanita for nearly 60 years. To this union were 11 children.

His favorite things included the color blue, Nat King Cole songs, the Pittsburgh Steelers and quiz shows. He enjoyed most of all, spending time with his family.

Bruce departed this life on January 15, 2017.
